BID BANDS - Guidelines for Ordering Specific Band Numbers An annual paid member of the AKC can request a special series set of band numbers, which shall be known as bid bands, sold in groups of 100 only. The bid will have precedence to all other band orders. You must be a member in good standing of the American King Club (paid $30.00 current year membership dues) to receive AKC bands. The procedure is as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Bid Band order forms will be furnished in the September Bulletin.</li> <li>2. All bids must be specific and must be received by the AKC Secretary postmarked no later than Dec. 1.</li> <li>3. Each order must be accompanied by full payment including handling charge. Minimum bid bands order is 100; sold in lots of 100 only.</li> <li>4. You must list your 1st, 2nd and 3rd preference. Highest bid on a set number will take precedence. In case of a tie on a given number bid, 1st postmark will take precedence. No metered mail will be accepted. No bid money will be returned unless all three requests cannot be honored.</li> <li>5. If two members go together to order bid bands, use one address for mailing and handing. Please show which numbers go to each member.</li> </ol> American King Club Bid Band Form: Bands are AKC 0 to AKC 4000 1st Preference: Band Numbers _____ Number of Bands _____ Bid per band $ _____ 2nd Preference: Band Numbers _____ Number of Bands _____ 3rd Preference: Band Numbers _____ Number of Bands _____
